

Project Framework - A Process to Complete the Nomination

The following graphic illustrates the overall strategy and approach by Pimachiowin Aki Corp. to develop the nomination document. First Nations leadership and participation is a leading principle of this initiative. The nomination will be built upon land use strategies undertaken by First Nations and the provinces and developed from six key areas of research and study.

